Article 1108: Exceptions¹

1. Articles 1102, 1103, 1104, 1106 and 1107 do not apply to:

(b) issuing, trading or dealing in securities;

(c) criminal or penal offenses;

(d) reports of transfers of currency or other monetary instruments; or

(e) ensuring the satisfaction of judgments in adjudicatory proceedings.

5. Paragraph 3 shall not be construed to prevent a Party from imposing any measure through the equitable, non-discriminatory and good faith application of its laws relating to the matters set out in subparagraphs (a) through (e) of paragraph 4.

6. A Party may restrict the transfers of returns in kind only in circumstances in which it could otherwise restrict such transfer under this Agreement.

Article 1110: Expropriation and Compensation

1. No Party shall directly or indirectly nationalize or expropriate an investment of an investor of another Party in its territory or take a measure tantamount to nationalization or expropriation of such an investment ("expropriation"), except:

(a) for a public purpose;

(b) on a nondiscriminatory basis;

(c) in accordance with due process of law and the general principles of treatment provided in Article 1105; and

(d) upon payment of compensation in accordance with paragraphs 2 to 6.

2. Compensation shall be equivalent to the fair market value of the expropriated investment immediately before the expropriation took place ("date of expropriation"), and shall not reflect any change in value occurring because the intended expropriation had become known earlier. Valuation criteria shall include going concern value, asset value (including declared tax value of tangible property) and other criteria, as appropriate to determine fair market value.

3. Compensation shall be paid without delay and be fully realizable.

4. If payment is made in a G7 currency, compensation shall include interest at a commercially reasonable rate for that currency from the date of expropriation until the date of actual payment thereof.

5. If a Party elects to pay in a currency other than a G7 currency, the amount paid shall be no less than the equivalent of the amount of compensation owed on the date of expropriation converted into a G7 currency at the market rate of exchange prevailing on that date, plus accrued interest at a commercially reasonable rate for that G7 currency from the date of expropriation until the date of actual payment.

6. Upon payment, compensation shall be freely transferable as provided in Article 1109.

7. This Article does not apply to the issuance of compulsory licenses granted in relation to intellectual property rights, or the revocation, limitation or creation of intellectual property rights to the extent that such issuance, revocation, limitation or creation is consistent with Chapter 17 (Intellectual Property).

Article 1111: Special Formalities and Information Requirements

1. Nothing in Article 1102 shall be construed to prevent a Party from adopting or maintaining a measure that prescribes special formalities in connection with the establishment of investments by investors of another Party, such as a requirement that investors be residents of the Party or that investments be legally constituted under the laws and regulations of the Party, provided that such formalities do not impair the substance of the benefits of any of the provisions in this Chapter.

2. Notwithstanding Articles 1102, 1103 and 1104, a Party may require, from an investor of another Party or its investment, routine business information, to be used solely for informational or statistical purposes, concerning that investment in its territory. The Party shall protect such business information as is confidential or from disclosure that would prejudice the investor's or the investment's competitive position. Nothing in this paragraph shall preclude a Party from otherwise obtaining or disclosing information in connection with the equitable and good faith application of its laws.

Article 1112: Relationship to Other Chapters

1. In the event of any inconsistency between a provision of this Chapter, and a provision of another Chapter, the provision of the other Chapter shall prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.¹

2. A requirement by a Party that a service provider of another Party post a bond or other form of financial security as a condition of providing a service into its territory does not of itself make this Chapter applicable to the provision of that cross-border service. This Chapter shall apply to that Party's treatment of the posted bond or financial security.

Article 1113: Denial of Benefits

Each Party reserves the right to deny to an investor of another Party that is an enterprise and to investments of such investor the benefits of this Chapter if investors of a non-Party own or control the enterprise and:²

(a) the enterprise has no substantial business activities in the territory of the Party under whose laws it is constituted or organized;

(b) the denying Party does not maintain diplomatic relations with the non-Party; or

(c) the denying Party adopts or maintains measures with respect to the non-Party that prohibit transactions with the enterprise or that would be violated or circumvented if the benefits of this Chapter were accorded to the enterprise.

Article 1114: State Enterprises

1. Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent a Party from maintaining or establishing a state enterprise.

2. Each Party, through regulatory control, administrative supervision or the application of other measures, shall ensure that any state enterprise and any other enterprise¹ owned or controlled through ownership interests by a Party acts in a manner that is not inconsistent with the Party's obligations under this Chapter, whenever such enterprise exercises any regulatory, administrative or other governmental authority that the Party has delegated to it, such as the power to expropriate, grant licenses, approve commercial transactions, or impose quotas, fees or other charges.²

3. Each Party shall ensure that a state enterprise that it maintains or establishes accords nondiscriminatory treatment to investments in the Party's territory of investors of another Party in the sale of its goods or services³.

Article 1115: Environmental Measures

1. Nothing in this Chapter shall be construed to prevent a Party from adopting, maintaining, or enforcing any measure, otherwise consistent with this Chapter, that it considers appropriate to ensure that investment activity in its territory is undertaken in a manner sensitive to environmental concerns.

this provision not subject to investor-state dispute settlement. Canada limits this paragraph to Crowns and provincial equivalents.

2. The Parties recognize that it is inappropriate to encourage investment by relaxing domestic health, safety or environmental measures. Accordingly, a Party should not waive or otherwise derogate from, or offer to waive or otherwise derogate from, such measures as an encouragement for the establishment, acquisition, expansion, or retention in its territory of an investment of an investor. If a Party considers that another Party has offered such an encouragement, it may request consultations with the other Party and the two Parties shall consult with a view to avoiding any such encouragement.

Articles 1113-1127: SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES BETWEEN A PARTY AND AN INVESTOR OF ANOTHER PARTY¹

Article 1113: Purpose

This Part² establishes a mechanism for the settlement of investment disputes that assures both equal treatment among investors of the Parties in accordance with the principle of international reciprocity and due process before an impartial tribunal.

Article 1114: Investment Dispute

Investment dispute means a dispute between a Party and an investor of another Party in which the investor alleges that the Party has breached

(a) a provision of this Chapter, or

(b) paragraph 3(a) of Article 2602 (Monopolies) or paragraph 2 of Article 2603 (State Enterprises), where the alleged breach pertains to the obligation of this Chapter,³

¹ This Part is without prejudice to the rights and obligations of the Parties as set out in Chapter 20.

² The use of the word part would depend on the final structure of this Chapter.

³ Language to be reviewed.

and that the investor has incurred loss or damage by reason of, or arising out of, that breach.¹

Article 1115: Consultation and Negotiation

The parties to an investment dispute should first attempt to settle the dispute through consultation or negotiation. Consultation or negotiation under this Article shall not constitute the initiation of domestic proceedings for purposes of Article 1117.

Article 1116: Fora for Resolving an Investment Dispute

1. If an investment dispute cannot be settled by consultation or negotiation, the investor may choose either to:

(a) initiate proceedings under the domestic law of the disputing Party, where the disputing Party has provided investors of another Party with a right of action under its domestic law for an alleged breach of this Chapter; or

(b) submit the investment dispute to arbitration under Article 1119;

and the choice, once made by the investor, shall be exclusive.

2. A Party shall not provide a right of action under its domestic law against any other Party for an alleged breach of this Agreement.²

The Parties will endeavor to develop language to the effect that regulation does not in itself constitute expropriation (placement of language to be determined by the Lawyers' Group.)

The Lawyers' Group will develop wording to make this provision generic and will decide where, outside the Investment Chapter, to place the provision.

Article 1117: Limitation Period

An investor shall not be entitled to submit an investment dispute to arbitration if more than three years have elapsed since the date on which the investor first acquired, or should have first acquired, knowledge of the alleged breach and knowledge that it has incurred loss or damage.

Article 1118: Arbitration Fora

1. Provided that six months have elapsed since the date on which the investment dispute arose, the investor may submit the dispute to arbitration under:

(a) the ICSID Convention, provided that both the disputing Party and the Party of the investor are parties to the Convention;

(b) the Additional Facility Rules of ICSID, provided that the disputing Party or the Party of the investor, but not both, is a party to the ICSID Convention; or

(c) the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules.

2. The Secretary General of ICSID shall serve as appointing authority for an arbitration under the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules.

3. The applicable arbitration rules shall govern the arbitration except to the extent modified by this Part.

Article 1119: Consent to Arbitration

1. Each Party hereby consents to the submission of an investment dispute between that Party and an investor of another Party for settlement by arbitration in accordance with the provisions of this Part.

2. The submission by an investor of an investment dispute to arbitration under this Part, together with the consent given by each Party in paragraph 1, shall satisfy the requirement of:

(a) Chapter II of the ICSID Convention (Jurisdiction of the Centre) and the Additional Facility Rules for written consent of the parties;

(b) Article II of the New York Convention for an agreement in writing; and

(c) Article I of the Inter-American Convention for an agreement.

3. Any dispute submitted by an investor for arbitration under this Part shall be considered to arise out of a commercial relationship or transaction for purposes of Article I of the New York Convention and Article I of the Inter-American Convention.

4. By submitting the dispute to arbitration, the investor:

(a) consents to arbitration in accordance with the provisions of this Part; and

(b) waives its and its investment's right to initiate or continue before any administrative tribunal or court [under the domestic law]¹ of any Party any proceedings with respect to the measure of the disputing Party that is alleged to be a breach of this Chapter, except for proceedings for injunctive, declaratory or other extraordinary relief before an administrative tribunal or court [under the domestic law] of the disputing Party.²

Article 1120: Notice

¹ Choice between reference to administrative tribunal or court, on the one hand, or "under the domestic law", on the other, to be made during scrubbing.

² The final drafting must make it clear that article 1117(1)(a) addresses a domestic cause of action under the NAFTA and article 1120(4)(b) addresses domestic law other than the NAFTA.

It must also be clear that "declaratory" and "extraordinary relief" do not include relief that involves the payment of damages.

In the case of Mexico, it is agreed that an investor must elect, at the end of the administrative process, either to submit his dispute to arbitration under the NAFTA or initiate judicial proceedings or administrative tribunal proceedings under Mexican domestic law. If the investor is successful in amparo proceedings, he may then submit the issue of compensation to arbitration under the NAFTA or, if Mexico creates a cause of action for a violation of the NAFTA, submit the issue of compensation to a court. Placement of this exception will be subject to determination of placement of other exceptions currently in the Investment Chapter. See attached Mexican text.

An investor shall give to the disputing Party written notice of its intention to submit an investment dispute to arbitration at least ninety days before the dispute is submitted, which notice shall specify:

- (a) the names and addresses of the parties to the dispute;
- (b) the provisions of this Chapter alleged to have been breached and any other relevant provisions;
- (c) the issues and the factual basis for the claim; and
- (d) the relief sought and the approximate amount of compensation claimed.

Article 1111: Selection or Appointment of Presiding Arbitrator¹

1. Unless the disputing parties select the presiding arbitrator:

- (a) the presiding arbitrator shall be selected or appointed in accordance with the applicable arbitration rules from the list of presiding arbitrators described in paragraph 2; and
- (b) in the event that no such presiding arbitrator is available to serve, the Secretary-General of ICSID shall appoint from the ICSID Panel of Arbitrators a presiding arbitrator who is not a national of any of the Parties.

2. As of the entry into force of this Agreement, the Parties shall have jointly designated, without regard to nationality, thirty presiding arbitrators meeting the qualifications of the rules referred to in Article 1119 and experienced in international law and investment.

Article 1122: Consolidation

1. The Secretariat of the Commission shall maintain a public register of submissions to arbitration under Article 1119 and requests made under paragraph 2.

¹ Canada will redraft this Article to address the problem with the appointment of arbitrators and establish a particular mechanism for appointing arbitrators.

2. A disputing party that seeks an order under paragraph 4 may request the Secretary General of ICSID to establish an arbitration tribunal and shall specify in the request:

- (a) the name of the disputing party or parties against which the order is sought;
- (b) the nature of the order sought; and
- (c) the grounds on which the order is sought.

A disputing party that seeks an order under paragraph 4 shall give to the disputing party or parties against which the order is sought a copy of the request.

3. Within 60 days of receipt of the request, the Secretary General of ICSID shall establish an arbitration tribunal consisting of three arbitrators. The presiding arbitrator shall be selected from the roster described in Article 1122. In the event that no such presiding arbitrator is available to serve, the Secretary-General of ICSID shall appoint a presiding arbitrator, who is not a national of any of the Parties from the ICSID Panel of Arbitrators. The two other members shall be selected from the roster described in Article 1122, or to the extent not available from that roster, from the ICSID Panel of Arbitrators, or to the extent not available from that panel, in the discretion of the Secretary General, provided that one member shall be a national of the disputing Party and one member shall be a national of the Party whose investors are disputing parties. The arbitration tribunal shall conduct itself in accordance with the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules.

4. Where it appears to the arbitration tribunal that arbitrations have been initiated under Article 1119 that have a question of law or fact in common, the tribunal may, in the interests of fair and efficient resolution of the disputes, and after hearing from the interested parties¹, order that the arbitration tribunal shall:

- (a) assume jurisdiction over, and hear and determine together, all

This term is in contemplation of language that will give a disputing party who is not named in an application for an order under paragraph 4 the right to cross-apply to the tribunal established under paragraph 3 to be added in an order made under paragraph 4.

or part of the investment disputes in accordance with the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules; or

(b) assume jurisdiction over, and hear and determine, one or more of the investment disputes the determination of which it believes would assist in the resolution of the others, in accordance with the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules.

5. An arbitration tribunal established under Article 1119 shall not have jurisdiction to decide an investment dispute, or a part of an investment dispute, over which an arbitration tribunal established under this Article has assumed jurisdiction.

Article 1123: General Provisions Applicable to Arbitrations under Articles 1119 or 1122

1. Notice: A disputing Party shall deliver to the other Parties:

(a) written notice of an arbitration initiated under Article 1119 or 1123 within 30 days of initiation of the arbitration; and

(b) copies of all pleadings filed in the arbitration.

2. Participation by a Party: On written notice to the disputing parties, a Party may make submissions to an arbitration tribunal established under Article 1119 or 1123 on a question of interpretation of this Agreement.

3. Documents: A Party shall be entitled to receive from the disputing Party at the cost of the requesting Party:

(a) a copy of the evidence that has been tendered to the arbitration tribunal; and

(b) a copy of the written argument of the disputing parties.¹

4. Place of Arbitration: Unless the disputing parties agree otherwise, an arbitration proceeding under Article 1119 or 1123 shall be held in the territory of a Party which is a party to the New York Convention, selected in accordance with:

(a) the Additional Facility Rules if the arbitration is under

¹ Wording must be developed to ensure that confidentiality is respected.

those rules or the ICSID Arbitration Rules; or

(b) the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules if the arbitration is under those rules.

5. Report from an Expert: At the request of a disputing party or, unless the disputing parties, disapprove, on its own initiative, an arbitration tribunal may appoint one or more experts to report to it in writing on any factual issue concerning environmental, health, safety or other scientific matters raised by a disputing party in an arbitration, subject to such terms and conditions as the disputing parties may agree.

6. Interim Measures of Protection: An arbitration tribunal established under Article 1118 or 1122 may take such measures as it deems necessary to preserve the respective rights of the disputing parties, or to insure that the tribunal's jurisdiction is made fully effective. Such measures may include, but are not limited to, orders to preserve evidence¹ or to protect the tribunal's jurisdictional exclusivity. An interim measure of protection may not include an order of attachment or an order to enjoin the application of the measure alleged to be the breach of the Chapter. For purposes of this paragraph, an order includes a recommendation.

7. Final Relief: An arbitration tribunal established under Article 1118 or 1122 may award only monetary damages or restitution of property. An award providing for restitution shall also provide that a Party may pay compensation in lieu thereof. An arbitration tribunal established under Article 1118 or 1122 shall not order a Party to pay punitive damages.

8. Standing: An investment may not initiate an arbitration proceeding under this Part.

An investor of a Party that owns or controls an investment that is an enterprise of another Party may initiate an arbitration proceeding under this Part for loss or damage to, or incurred by, its investment.

The tribunal shall order that any resulting relief be for the benefit of the investment without prejudice to any interest that

This is to be drafted so that the federal government of Canada will not be the subject of an order to preserve evidence that is in the possession or control of a subnational government.

non-controlling or minority shareholders may have in the relief under the applicable domestic law.¹

Article 1124: Interpretation of Annexes ... (Constitution), ... (National Treatment) and ... (Unbound)

1. Where a disputing Party asserts as a defence that the measure alleged to be a breach of this Chapter is within the scope of an exception set forth in Annex ... (Mexican Constitution), Annex ... (National Treatment) or Annex ... (Unbound), on request of the disputing Party, the arbitration tribunal shall request the interpretation of the Commission on this question. The Commission shall have 60 days to submit its interpretation in writing to the tribunal.²

2. If the Commission submits to the tribunal an agreed interpretation,³ the interpretation shall be binding on the tribunal. If the Commission fails to submit an agreed interpretation or fails to submit an agreed interpretation within such 60 day period, the tribunal shall decide the issue of interpretation of the exception.⁴

Final drafting must reflect that non-controlling or minority shareholders may not bring separate claims arising out of the same breach.

The role of the Commission under this Article is unrelated to Chapter 23.

U.S. acceptance conditional on confirmation that agreed interpretation requires agreement of all three Parties.

4 The Parties agree that trilateral agreement on interpretation of a provision of the NAFTA will be binding on an investor/state arbitration tribunal, and will draft language accordingly with appropriate location to be determined by the Lawyers' Group.

Article 1125: Governing Law

An arbitration tribunal established under this Part shall decide the issues in dispute in accordance with this Agreement and applicable rules of international law.

Article 1126: Finality and Enforcement of Award

1. A final award made in an arbitration proceeding under Article 1118 or 1122 is binding on the disputing parties but shall have no binding force except between the disputing parties and in respect of the particular case.

2. A disputing Party shall abide by and comply with a final award made in an arbitration proceeding under Article 1118 or 1122 without delay, but shall not be required to abide by or comply with an award that is not final.
